

FUTURE TRADING ACT UNENFORCEABLE

SECTION FOUR OF THE ACT IS PASSED UPON BY SUPREME COURT

Justice Brandeis Dissented from the Decision Which Was Delivered by Chief Justice Taft—Ruling Will be Farreaching in its Effect—Says Court Cannot Reframe Act

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Section four of the future trading act and those parts of the act which are regulations affected by the so-called tax imposed by that section, were today held unenforceable by the supreme court in an opinion delivered by Chief Justice Taft to which Justice Brandeis dissented. The section was held unenforceable because it was not a valid exercise of the taxing power of the federal government in that it attempted to regulate transactions over which the federal government had no constitutional control and was an invasion of the police powers of the state.

Section four imposed a tax of 20 cents a bushel upon future trades in grain when not made upon exchanges not designated "contract" markets subject to federal control or when not made by actual owners of the grain or by the owners or the renters of land upon which the grain is to be grown.

While the decision stated that a number of the sections of the act were invalid, Senator Capper, Republican, Kansas, one of its authors, declared the decision a knockout, which "practically destroyed the effectiveness of the act."

UNITED STATES WILL NOT TAKE PART IN CONFERENCE

Declines Invitation to Participate in Hague Meeting

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, May 15.—The state department made public tonight the text of a message to Ambassador Child at Genoa "declining" the invitation to participate in the new European economic conference at The Hague.

"This government," the American communication said, "is unable to conclude that it can helpfully participate in the meeting at The Hague as this would appear to be the continuance under a different nomenclature of the Genoa conference and destined to encounter the same difficulties if the attitude disclosed in the Russian memorandum of May 11, remains unchanged."

"The inescapable and ultimate question," the American note said, "would appear to be the restoration of productivity in Russia, the essential conditions of which are still to be secured and must in the nature of things be provided within Russia herself."

The state department's communication said the American government "has always been ready" to join other governments in arranging for an inquiry by experts into the economic situation in Russia and the necessary remedies.

Such an inquiry, it was added, could deal appropriately "with the economic prerequisites" for restoration of Russian production without which a sound basis for credits, "would be lacking."

In conclusion the American communication renewed the offer to "give serious attention" to "any proposals" issued from a Genoa conference, or any later conference, "but added that the suggestion for the meeting at The Hague in view of the Russian memorandum on May 11 lacked 'the definiteness which would make possible the concurrence of this government in the proposed plan.'"

Text of Reply
The text of the reply which Secretary Hughes directed Ambassador Child to make the powers' invitation follows:
"This government has carefully considered the invitation extended to it by the president of the Genoa conference under the conditions set forth in the agreement of the inviting powers to join the proposed commission to meet at The Hague June 15. 'This government is most desirous to aid in every practicable way the consideration of the economic exigencies in Russia and wishes again to express the deep friendship felt by the people of the United States for the people of the Russian Republic.'"

STUDENTS PAINT RAILROAD COACHES; MAY BE ARRESTED

Missouri Pacific Asks Arrest of U. of C. Students

(By The Associated Press) BOULDER, Colo., May 15.—City authorities of Boulder have been requested to arrest University of Colorado students who, through a reprisal directed against visiting members of the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce, cost the Missouri Pacific Railroad $600.

Saturday afternoon the Kansas City business men were guests at a beef steak fry on Flagstaff Mountain near the university campus. Every spring the students place a "C" fifty feet in diameter on the summit of the mountain. Because of park regulations the "C" is not painted but is of white paper weighted down with stones. Yesterday morning a fifty foot "K" appeared in front of the "C."

Boulder students on seeing the initials on the mountain are said to have felt that the Kansas City business men had been unable to resist an impulse to advertise their home town.

This morning it was discovered that the 12 coaches that carried the Kansas City party carried the legends "U of C and University of Colorado" in black and white paint on both sides. Railroad officials said it would cost $600 to repaint the train and asked the arrest of whoever was responsible.

JAP SYNDICATE PUTS SILK PRICES UP

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, May 15.—Declaring that the operations of a Japanese syndicate was responsible for the rise in price of raw silk, Morris Woolf, president of the Morris Woolf silk company today issued an appeal to the merchants of the central west to unite in an effort to force lower prices. His statement in part follows:

"Raw silk prices are steadily advancing recently because of a raw silk syndicate in Japan controlling the product. We believe that artificial methods of this sort are harmful to every angle of the business. We want free and open competition in the raw market as well as in the manufactured goods."

LADY ASTOR IS NOT AFRAID OF BOMBS

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, May 15.—"Look out for bombs in Chicago!—that's what they told me," laughed Lady Astor to an audience that filled Orchestra Hall at a meeting of men and women conducted by the Illinois League of Women Voters. "I told them as I'm not afraid of bombs as I am of political apathy."

There was no apathy about Lady Astor during her address. References she made to Chicago and Illinois were all a spirit of response to a challenge of combat.

With a sweeping gesture of both arms, she exclaimed, "I always knew Abraham Lincoln really belonged to Virginia, but we were big enough to let Illinois and Kentucky have him too."

BELIEVE SOURCE OF BOMB SUPPLY HAS BEEN FOUND

Dynamite, Fuses and Caps Found in Home of Suspect

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, May 15.—A quantity of dynamite, fuses and percussion caps believed by the police to have been the chief source of supply of bombs employed in the labor warfare which resulted in the killing of two policemen and the arrest of more than 75 union leaders last week was found today in the home of one of the men under arrest.

The explosives, according to the police were found in a barrel in the home of John Miller owner of the abandoned automobile in which the bombers who shot two policemen, made their escape. Miller has claimed entire ignorance of the bombing operations and reported that the automobile used in the killings had been stolen from him.

While the police were seeking the stores of dynamite used by the bombers, attorneys for the eight labor men indicted in connection with the disorders, including Fred Mader, president of the Chicago Building Trades Council, and "Big Tim" Murphy, known as the city's "labor czar" appeared in court to demand immediate trials for their clients.

Representatives of the state's attorney's office expressed their willingness to hurry the trials and urged Chief Justice Scanlan to establish a "labor court" as a special adjunct of the criminal court to try the 170 persons under indictment in labor cases. These include Mader, Murphy and six others charged with the killing of two policemen in last week's bombings; Thomas J. Walsh, accused of the slaying of George Gast, Simon O'Donnell, former head of the building trades council and William F. Quenneville, head of the Flat Janitors' Union both indicted for alleged graft.

Report Defense Fund of $100,000
In labor circles it was reported that a special fund of $100,000 was being collected for the defense of Mader, Murphy and the six others indicted with them.

Two confessions, one said to be from one of the actual slayers of the two policemen and the second from a man thought to be driver of the death car were in the hands of the police tonight.

This announcement was made after a conference between Chief of Police Fitzmorris, State's Attorney Crowe, Chief of Detectives Hughes and H. B. Chamberlain, of Chicago crime commissioner. The identity of the men and full details of the confessions were kept secret. The police declared they had established the identity of all the four men in the death car as well as that of the men higher up, whom, they said had instigated the slayings.

TRAIN ROBBERS BELIEVED TO BE HIDING IN TUCSON

Sheriff's Poses Spend Day Searching for Bandits

(By The Associated Press) TUCSON, Ariz., May 15.—Sheriff's posse searching since early this morning for the seven bandits who escaped from the scene of the attempted robbery of the Golden State Limited after an eighth member of their band had been killed in the effort, believe the fugitives may be hiding in Tucson.

Trace of the fleeing highwaymen along the Casas Grande Highway seems to indicate, it was said, that they may have reached the city before the roads into the city were closed to them by armed guards. It is believed the bandits divided after the attempted robbery and traveled in a large seven passenger car and a light machine.

Evidence that two motor cars were concealed in the thicket near Jaynes, the station where the robbery occurred, was found by the officers.

HELL SCENE FROM DANTE'S INFERNO IS REALISTIC

Hackensack, N. J., May 15.—Dante's "Inferno" was blamed by fire marshals today for a fire which damaged a theater Saturday night. A film version of the hell scene became overheated while being run thru the projector or machine and exploded, the movie operator told the marshals.

ATTORNEY FOR STEEL COMPANY DENIES CHARGES

Says Proposed Merger Will Not Be Monopoly or Combination

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, May 15.—Denial that the proposed merger of six independent steel companies will be either a monopoly or a combination in restraint of trade was made today in a statement issued by Thomas L. Chadbourne, counsel for the interested companies. The statement was given out as a result of charges made in congress by Senator LaFollette in connection with his resolution authorizing the federal trade commission to investigate this merger and that of the Bethlehem Steel corporation and Lackawanna Steel company.

"There is no thought in connection with the proposed merger of Briar Hill Steel company, Inland Steel company, Midvale Steel and Ordnance company, Republic Iron and Steel company, the Steel Tube company of America and the Youngstown Sheet & Tube company, Mr. Chadbourne said, "not violating either the Sherman Law or the Clayton Act."

The aggregated rated ingot capacity of these companies is approximately only 16 per cent of the total rated ingot capacity of the United States, while their total production in 1920 was approximately only 17 per cent of the total production of the country. Operation of the properties of the six companies as a unit will result in a very substantial reduction in costs which will enhance, rather than restrain competition.

Adams, who died last Friday and whose funeral was held today at Geneva.

Also the appointment of Mr. Dolby was made only temporary. Governor Small intimated it would be made permanent.

(By The Associated Press) TAYLORVILLE, Ill., May 15.—Trial of Timothy "Stuttering Jimmy" Lotsey and Marcus Jerome Lackart on a charge of robbery in connection with the $95,000 Kincaid payroll robbery of August 13 last, opened today before Judge Thomas M. Jett of the Christian county circuit court. Four jurors had been tentatively selected when the court recessed for the night. Rumors are rife around the court room that Lotsey intends to plead guilty to the charge of robbery. He with Marcus Jerome Lackart and Jesse Lockart were found not guilty of a charge of conspiracy about a month ago.

MORE MOVIE SCANDAL OUT IN CALIFORNIA

(By The Associated Press) LOS ANGELES, Calif., May 15.—Jean Acker, film actress from Los Angeles, who was married to actor, obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce January 19, 1922, said tonight she "would like to do something" because of his marriage at Mexico, Lower California, to Winifred Hauke, dancer and film director.

"I shall take the matter up with my attorney tomorrow," said Miss Acker, who according to judges of the Los Angeles county superior court still is Mrs. Valentino and will be until, if nothing prevents, the interlocutory decree is made final in January, 1923.

WAR GRAFTERS TO BE PROSECUTED BY ATTORNEY GENERAL

House Clears Way by Making Appropriation of $500,000

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, May 15.—The house cleared the road today for what some members described as "an unrelenting prosecution" of war grafters when it put thru and sent to the senate a bill appropriating $500,000 for investigation and prosecution of war fraud cases by the department of justice and passed a senate bill for an additional grand jury in the District of Columbia, before which the attorney general may present evidence in his fight for indictments.

Attorney General Daugherty had requested speedy action on both measures.

Some men "who think" they have power in the nation today will find themselves behind the bars, as a result of the activity of Attorney General Daugherty declared Chairman Madden of the appropriations committee in urging everybody to stand up and give him what he had asked.

As joint author of the Woodruff, Republican, Michigan, his vote for the appropriation measure in no way affects my determination to press for action upon the resolution.

Will Find Many Cases
The public Mr. Woodruff said, had gained the impression that attention had been directed only to the Bosch Magneto and Chemical foundation cases while "an investigation committee or the department of justice if it operates will find others just as reprehensible."

Referring to the attorney general's letter to the president, Representative Moore, Democrat, declared Mr. Daugherty "seems to hold congress accountable for his inaction in some, at least of the war fraud cases."

"The material question now," he added, "is why was not congress in April advised of the situation set forth in the letter of the attorney general which so quickly followed the introduction of the Woodruff-Johnson resolution?"

There was a sharp exchange between Mr. Moore and Chairman Campbell of the rules committee who, with two other Republican and Democratic members voted to give the resolution privileged status, over the chairman's failure to call it up.

To Mr. Moore's inquiry as to whether he proposes to give the house a chance to vote on it, Mr. Campbell asked:

"Do you think a congressional investigation is of more importance now than a civil and criminal prosecution?"

Mr. Moore wanted to know if the chairman would give Mr. Daugherty the investigation which "he does court and challenge."

"Just as soon as I think it will do more good to prosecute a resolution of inquiry in the newspapers and elsewhere than it will do to prosecute criminal and civil actions that the attorney general is preparing," said Mr. Campbell, "then the house will have opportunity to vote on the resolution, but I deem it more important to proceed with the serious matter of recovery in civil actions and of securing convictions in criminal process than I do to fill newspapers with irrelevant matter upon which you could neither recover nor convict."

Representative King, Republican, Illinois, declared if the department of justice "institutes a genuine campaign against war grafters congress will have to create a multitude of new jail apartments for them."

Criticizing the dismissal by the Attorney General of W. O. Watts, a special agent of the department of justice Mr. King declared "Watts with 17 years of service in the army" refused to approve fraudulent sales and then was discharged because he did his plain duty in complaining against these irregularities."

SUPREME COURT SAYS CHILD LABOR LAW IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Decision Was Handed Down by Court Yesterday—Three Cases Came to Court from North Carolina—Opinion Was Delivered by Chief Justice Taft With No Dissent

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, May 15.—The child-labor law was declared unconstitutional today by the supreme court.

The law enacted in 1919 was intended to regulate the employment of children in any mill, cannery, workshop or manufacturing establishment under the age of 14 or in any mine or quarry under 16 years by imposing an excise tax of 10 per cent upon the net annual profits of those employing such labor. It was attacked on the ground that it attempted to regulate an exclusively state function in violation of the federal constitution and the tenth amendment and was defended as a mere excise tax levied by congress under its broad power of taxation conferred by the federal constitution.

The law was attacked in the supreme court by three cases from North Carolina, appealed by the government. Two of these, the Atherton Mills and that by John J. George and others were dismissed on technicalities, but the case brought by the Drexel Furniture company was found in proper form and it was in that the law was declared invalid.

The opinion was delivered by Chief Justice Taft with no dissent announced. The case was discussed at length in view of previous decisions involving questions bearing upon the taxing power of congress and the law was held invalid as an attempt by congress to regulate thru its taxing power something entirely within the jurisdiction of the various states in the exercise of their power.

Decline to Discuss Decision
Officials of the internal revenue bureau declined to discuss the decision until they had an opportunity to read the full opinion but stated that the amount of money involved in tax was small and that the child labor bureau employing about 50 persons would be discontinued.

"Does this law impose a tax with only that incidental restraint and regulation which a tax must inevitably involve?"

The chief justice asked or "does it regulate by the use of the so-called tax as a penalty?" If a tax it is clearly an excise. If it would be an excise on a commodity or other thing of value we might not be permitted under previous decisions of this court to infer solely from its heavy burden that the act intends a prohibition instead of a tax but this act is more."

After analyzing the principle features of the law and its operation the chief justice said:

"In the light of these features of the act the court must be blind to see that the so-called tax is imposed to stop the employment of children within the age limits prescribed."

Declaring it the duty of the court to decline to recognize or enforce laws of congress dealing with subjects not entrusted to congress but left by the supreme law of the land to the control of the states, the chief justice said the court must perform that duty even tho it require us to refuse to give effect to legislation designed to promote the highest good."

CANNOT RELINQUISH RIVER BARGE LINE

St. Louis, Mo., May 15.—The government cannot safely relinquish the operation of the barge line on the lower Mississippi until a more remunerative schedule of rates on freight haulage jointly by railroads and the barge service is established, Col. T. Q. Ashburn, chief of the inland waterway service of the war department stated today.

OPENING SKIRMISH IS WON BY STATE IN SMALL TRIAL

Private Records Kept by Sterling Admitted in Evidence

(By The Associated Press) WAUKEGAN, Ill., May 15.—The state won the opening skirmish today in the trial of Governor Len Small, charged with conspiracy to embezzle state funds, when Judge Edwards ruled over objections of the defense that private records kept during the term of Fred E. Sterling as state treasurer could be admitted in evidence.

C. C. LeFors, chief counsel for the governor fought to bar the record book, a "tickler" or daily cash balance sheet from evidence, and challenged the right of Harry C. Luehrs, assistant state treasurer and witness for the state to testify as to items appearing in it.

It was brought out that the book was considered in the treasurer's office as the personal property of the treasurer and that it was the practice to turn it over to the official along with certain other records when he retired. The state developed that several books and records for which they called had been turned over to Governor Small when he retired from the treasurer's office in January, 1919.

Thru the "tickler" Assistant State's Attorney Free of Sangamon county, told the court, the state will seek to show that the Grant Park bank, which it alleged the governor and Mr. Sterling loaned at various times sums totaling $29,000,000 was synonymous with a "safe fund" carried on the treasurer's books. The state alleges that the Grant Park bank did not exist but was merely a name which Mr. Small, Mr. Sterling, the late Senator Edward C. Curtis and Vernon Curtis, the latter two bankers of Grant Park used state funds for their personal profit.

Mr. Free brought out in questioning Mr. Luehrs that when a draft was drawn on the treasurer's office payable to the Grant Park bank the so-called "safe fund" was increased a corresponding amount, and when the draft was repaid to the treasury the "safe fund" decreased in the same amount. All the other state funds carried on the books under the title of "vault fund", were loaned to some 250 other banks in the state, the witness said.

Mr. Luehrs testified that interest statements were mailed to these other banks each month with a request for a remittance but, that so far as he knew, no such statements were ever sent to the Grant Park bank.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat photographer is responsible for the wise admonition to "save some money" - itself and do not place too much reliance upon the hope of financial measures that congress may adopt.

Franklin D. Roosevelt is the head of a new enterprise, the American Construction Council. The purpose is to iron out some of the difficulties of the building trades in relation to capital, to labor and profits, with the goal of getting better service for the public at a fair price and increasing public confidence in builders, contractors and material dealers. That is a task that is worthy of a Roosevelt.

Luther Burbank, who has wrought such wonders in the development of flowers, vegetables and fruits, says that like things can be accomplished with children

If the surroundings and conditions are right.
No doubt Mr. Burbank meant that the same painstaking care and patience must be applied to growing children that is necessary for the vegetable world. Perhaps he meant, too, that while some facts must be taken into account that there must also be changes in method as surroundings and inheritance vary.

Secretary Hughes' answer to the invitation extended to the United States to participate in the adjourned Genoa conference was just as explicit as was the first. Some time these foreign statesmen who are seeking to entangle the United States in some of their plans will get the idea that there is no use extending invitations until they have cleaned house and carried into effect the suggestions of Uncle Sam.

In the public health work just started Morgan county has a chance not only for bettering health and sanitary conditions but in securing a great deal of good advertising. While the all-time health officer plan has been tried out in other states with very satisfactory results, this county was chosen for the trial work in Illinois.

Dr. Brokaw, the health officer, comes with an excellent record behind him. The state health department will lend its full support and the Rockefeller foundation has a financial interest. With county and city heartily co-operating and with these outside aids certainly there is a chance for something very much worth while.

Y. M. C. A. HAS VARIED WORK IN INDIA
V. M. Lahibaksh, Long an Association Secretary There, Tells About Conditions.
V. M. Lahibaksh, who is in the United States on leave of absence from India, was in Jacksonville yesterday in conference with J. S. Findley, Y. M. C. A. secretary. Mr. Lahibaksh is a graduate of the law department of Illinois Wesleyan university, and has been engaged in Y. M. C. A. work for a number of years. He is in charge of about 25 workers who have all the northern part of India.
"If a line were drawn from Bombay to Calcutta," Mr. Lahibaksh said yesterday, "you could describe our field of work as north of such a line. India has millions upon millions of population, so that you can understand that our force of workers can only come in contact with a very few of the people. The Y. M. C. A. secretary over there does not confine himself to religious work but must also do something of the work of a farm adviser in this country."
"One of the greatest problems of the common people there, the men who till a few acres of soil and call it farming, is in securing enough funds for even these simple operations. The system of interest rates used by the native bankers in lending to these farmers amounts to about 75 to 80 per cent a year."
"A part of the Y. M. C. A. program has been to work out plans for extending financial assistance to these poor farmers at a reasonable rate of interest."
Mr. Lahibaksh came to the U. S. last July on advice of his physician, but expects to return to his native land in September. He has not been idle while in the states, and has had conferences with numerous groups of Y. M. C. A. workers and has made numerous public addresses, all purposing to give the people a clearer understanding of conditions as they exist in India. Mr. Lahibaksh is a long time friend of M. B. Keplinger of Franklin and is often a guest at the Keplinger home.

SOVIET DELEGATE SAYS RUSSIA TO BE REPRESENTED

Will be at Hague Conference But Doesn't Look for Results

(By The Associated Press)
GENOA, May 15.—Russia will participate in the proposed conference at The Hague to discuss the Russian question M. Rakovskii announced tonight after a meeting of the entire Bolshevik delegation. In giving out this information to newspaper correspondents M. Rakovskii declared that in his judgment which he said was also the judgment of his fellow delegates unless the Russian idea of a real mixed commission was adopted instead of the double commission idea proposed by the powers, The Hague conference was bound to prove as sterile as the Genoa conference.
M. Rakovskii emphasized that the soviet delegation had found unacceptable the proposition of the powers whereby no treaties could be entered into with Russia, whether political or economic in character, during The Hague meeting. If persisted in, he was confident it would prove intense feeling throughout Russia against this gathering because the Russians would regard it as a masked blockade against them.
He wanted the world to understand that communistic Russia was heartily in favor of a permanent non-aggression pact. Russia, he declared sought only peace and security.
The Russian spokesman said

WATER STREET TO BE BEAUTY SPOT

Will be Made Into Boulevard—Other News of Interest.

CHICAGO—South Water street where about a billion dollars worth of turnips, cheese, ducks, eggs, onions and other food stuffs are bartered in a year is preparing to pick up its squawking fowls, its snails, its babble of tongues, its slippery cobble stones, and move. A twenty million dollar double-decked street—boulevard above, traffic way beneath is to replace it. The street extends six blocks along the river through the heart of Chicago.
Promoters of the Chicago Beautiful plan say the crooked river-side street will give way to a boulevard that will rival Michigan Avenue in beauty. The gay linousine will flash where heavy huckster wagons and delivery trucks rumbled. Silks will rustle where the commission house cat purled atop an orange crate. South Water Street, more or less known wherever people eat, will become a reminiscence.
The new street, like the old, will begin at the site of Fort Dearborn, the original nucleus of Chicago, and will connect with other boulevards about half a mile to the west close to where the pavilion or wigwam stood in which Abe Lincoln was nominated for the presidency. It will wind with the Chicago River and the lower deck will have docks.
Overcrowded for years in a bewildering jam six blocks long, the commission merchants under the new plan are to spread out over the very latest thing in market places to be constructed a mile or two away on West Randolph street. Assessment rolls amounting to $20,000,000 for the South Water Street improvements will be filed within the month.
The new quarters for the food merchants will be an immense rectangular section containing a series of railroad tracks alternating with streets, the commission houses to face inward along the outer sides of the rectangle, leaving the interior free for movement of traffic. Adjoining will be another large rectangle containing switching yards for produce and affording direct connection with approximately 20 lines entering Chicago.

Chas. Todding, member of the committee of wholesale merchants, that has the new market place project in hand, is authority for the statement that the business done in South Water Street reached a total of a billion dollars a year.
As a monument to the life of John B. Murphy, world famous surgeon and pathfinder in medicine, a great medical library is to be erected here in the near future through the efforts of more than fifty thousand distinguished members of his profession, the roll-call of the American College of Surgery. A $200,000 fund left by Mrs. John B. Murphy for the benefit of medical science will be used as a nucleus of the library fund, this to be multiplied by subscriptions from the membership of the college.
Dr. Murphy, after arranging his own funeral, died quietly in a comparatively secluded hotel at Macinac Island, Aug. 11, 1916. Twenty hours after his death contemporary surgeons and friends in Chicago received engraved cards notifying them that they had been chosen as honorary pallbearers at the pre-arranged funeral.

The detective bureau has picked a dozen of its handsomest members and assigned them to patrol Michigan boulevard and Sheridan Road in fine big cars in an effort to stay the ravages of the boulevard vamp said to infest these thoroughfares in such numbers as to be a menace to motorists.

Campaign for an American Opera House where native works and artists as well as foreign opera in English can be heard has been started here by the Opera in Our Language Foundation, Inc. Among the backers of the project are Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, Mrs. Archibald Freer, Mr. Percy Mackay and Mr. Wallace Rice.

claimed by many to be the prettiest ever staged at the college. The pageant was in the form of a play written by John Kearns, entitled "The Lady of the Lake," setting and plot of the play was of the romantic time in Old England when "Knighthood was in flower" and Barons still held sway.

One of the features that made the affair so lovely was the attractiveness of the costumes. The girls showed exquisite taste in the costumes and the beautiful colors added greatly to the artistic effect of the scene. The music, furnished by the college orchestra and directed by John Kearns also added its part to the success of the whole.

The pageant was divided into three parts. The first "Morning," showed the scene in the woods with the Druid priest lighting a fire on the woodland altar to welcome spring. Then the little Wood Sprites in their pretty brown and yellow costumes, came out and did a happy, bright lit dance to celebrate the first of May. The Fisher Boys and Maidens in their simple blue and white frocks came out on the green and danced and then laid their garlands of flowers on the altar. The Christian Priest however came out and interrupted the dancers and purified the altar.

At "Midday" second part of the pageant, the peasants assembled for the May Day celebration and in their quaint little costumes enacted a folk dance on the green. The Jongleurs, a gay troupe of wandering minstrels in their lovely purple and cerise garbs, each carrying a musical instrument, next danced and were followed by the Glee Maidens who danced in a graceful and attractive manner. Miss Audrey King, as Marie, of the Glee Maidens, gave a solo dance with graceful abandon and artistry.

Miss Hildreth Ashwood, as the Queen, first appeared as the Princess. She was attended by the ladies of her court, the members of the Senior class who wore the most charming quaint frocks of rainbow colors and carried little garlands of bouquets of garden flowers. The Beggars, in their ragged, patched costumes made a very picturesque appearance as they danced before the Princess. While the village festival was going on and the boys and girls were dancing, the Wood Sprites suddenly whisked, the Princess away. There was great consternation when it was learned that the Princess was gone. The gayly robed Duke and his followers appeared and the jealous Glee Maidens indicated that Miss Laura Hurt, in the role of the Prince, was the culprit that lured the Princess away. The band of executioners in black hooded robes, were about to arrest the Prince when the Lady of the Lake, Miss Charlotte Rodgers, and her followers appear and prevent. Miss Rodgers was charming in her solo dance and her followers, the Lake Sprites in their green and coral dresses gave a lovely nymphlike dance. The two little lavender and green butterflies danced with the bright flitting movement of graceful creatures.

All Ends Happily In the third part, "Afternoon" the people all assembled on the green for the restoration of the Princess and the acquittal of the Prince. Marie, in the solo dance, "Remorse" danced with a quiet grace and art, as did her Glee Maidens who accompanied her. The most picturesque scene of the whole fete was that enacted when the Wood Sprites brought in a large white flower and placed it in the center of the green. At the touch of the butterflies the petals opened and the May Queen stepped out. Miss Ashwood made a charming queen and in the ceremony in which she was crowned Queen of the May by Mrs. Paul Samuel, an ex-May Queen, she was most attractive. The play was then brought to a close by the acquittal of the Prince, the crowning of the Queen and the dancing around the May pole. The May Pole Dance was one of the most attractive features of the fete, danced with charm and grace by the ladies of the Queen's Court, in their quaint dresses of a bygone day.

The credit due for the careful training of the numerous large groups of dancers is given unreservedly to the directors of physical education, Miss Nellie and Miss Peggy Boyd. For dancing, such as was done yesterday by the students of Illinois Woman's College means long hours of most painstaking and intensive training, and the results witnessed yesterday proved that the Misses Boyd not only understood the art of dancing themselves, but they are wholly capable of training these under their supervision. A large share of the success of the day is due to them and their painstaking instruction.

While special credit is due the various chairmen of committees, it is only thro hearty co-operation of every individual that such an affair as this can be given with any degree of success. With characteristic enthusiasm each student proved her desire to do her share in making this the usual success expected of all public performances at Illinois Woman's College.

Miss Miriam McOmber was the general chairman. Miss Jennie Lacey, costume chairman. Miss Margaret Merker music chairman. Miss Margaret Hamilton, stage chairman. and Miss Velma Bain, business chairman. Miss Jeanette Powell directed pantomime and character features. The cast for the fete included about one hundred and fifty students and those taking special part in the play were:

Druid Priest—Ruth Muirhard.
Christian Priest—Martha Logan.
Prince; Launcelot—Lura Hart.
Marie—Audrey King.
May Queen; Princess Elaine—Hildreth Ashwood.
Queen's Attendant—Marian Munson.

LOCAL PHYSICIAN GIVEN SENTENCE

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 15.—Failure to cure himself of the drug habit in sixty days, the time set for him by Federal Judge Fitzhenry, today started Dr. Joseph E. Wharton of Jacksonville on the way to the Leavenworth penitentiary. He was sentenced to prison for one year and a day. When first arraigned last January Dr. Wharton confessed that he was addicted to the drug habit and promised that if given a chance he would take the cure. When brought before Judge Fitzhenry today it developed that he had taken what the judge styled a "make-shift cure" at Peoria and still was an addict. He was sentenced on the charge of dispensing the drug to others in Jacksonville in violation of the Harrison anti-drug act.

FUNERALS

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Fanny Kirby were held at Dublin church Sunday in charge of Rev. J. W. Kettle and Dr. E. M. Rule. There was a large concourse of people from the neighborhood and many guests of Morgan and Scott families.

Music was furnished by the church choir. The many beautiful flowers were in charge of Mrs. Leslie Leak, Mrs. Marion Spires, Mrs. Robert Alderson and Miss Elsie Crouse.

Dr. Rule read the scripture lesson memoir and Rev. Mr. Kettle preached a strong and appropriate sermon on Heaven, based upon the description of Heaven given by St. John in the closing chapters of Revelations.

Interment was made in Providence cemetery, the bearers being nephews of the deceased, Edward, Newton, Nathan, David and Charles Walkington and James Leage.

Obituary

Fanny, youngest daughter of George and Jane Leake, was born June 30th, 1831, in Dyfield, Yorkshire, England. She was married to John Kirby, December 23rd, 1850. Soon afterward they came to America and chose Illinois as the place to establish their home. In the year 1885 they settled in what through the years since has been known as "The Kirby Home," and from which both have been translated to the home beyond the stars; the husband Nov. 27th, 1909, and his companion, just as the pendulum of time marked the early dawn of May 12th, 1922.

There were born to this husband and wife two sons and four daughters, two of whom, Miss Anna on August 10th, 1902, and Miss Emma, October 18th, 1915, were also translated to the heavenly home. The sons, William and George, the other daughters, Miss Rachel, and Mrs. W. T. Muligan, three grandchildren, Fletcher, Miss Vera and Glenn Mulligan, two great grandchildren, Marjorie and Kirby Mulligan, are the living representatives of this homeword, with four nieces and eight nephews and a host of Christian friends, on this Mother's Day pay tribute, just tribute, to the saintly woman and Mother who, having "served her generation by the will of God," has gone to join the choir invisible of those immortal dead who live again."

Mrs. Kirby early in life recognized the claims of Christ and became an earnest follower of Him as her Lord and Master. She united with the Methodist Episcopal church and was one of the charter members of the Dublin church. She expressed her Christianity by being a true wife, a kind and loving mother, a sincere friend, and by a life of earnest ministry in behalf of her loved ones, her neighbors and friends, and by thorough devotion to the work of the church as long as her health permitted.

Her last illness began the fifteenth of last March, yet during the long weary days and sleepless nights since she was uncomplainingly retained consciousness, was cheerful, glad to see and talk with her friends and asked them to meet her in her eternal home. As the things temporal receded things eternal seemed more real to her. She expressed an abiding faith in the verities of the gospel and rejoiced in a hope of a blessed immortality "undimmed by sorrow and unhurt by time."

There was no "guess for her dying pillow." She met her "Pilot" face to face when she crossed the bar."

TRIAL OF GREEKS

CONTINUED TO MAY 31 Sheriff Ingals of Schuyler county came to Jacksonville Monday with a warrant for James Vontos, a Greek who was not indicted by the Schuyler county grand jury. However, later a warrant was sworn out against Vontos, charging him with murder and yesterday he was taken to Rushville by the sheriff.

Vontos, it is said, was at the station the night of the shooting, waiting to get aboard the passenger train. It was because he was not with the others in the box car that the grand jury did not return an indictment against him.

The trial of the 29 Greeks indicted for murder was set for May 22. Yesterday, Walter W. Wright, attorney for the accused men, stated that a continuance to May 31 had been granted.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE GETS MORE SUBSCRIPTIONS

Only $15,000 Now Needed to Complete $375,000—Further Gifts Reported Monday Evening.

The trustees of Illinois College and a committee of the alumni met again for supper and conference at the Dunlap house Monday evening. The reports made indicated that about $2600 additional had been subscribed to the new endowment fund since last Thursday. This leaves slightly less than $15,000 still to be raised before commencement to complete the new fund of $375,000.

The gifts of recent days have been very encouraging to the trustees and while they do not know just from what source the $15,000 is coming, they feel very sure that the friends of the college will not fail at this critical time. With the fund of $375,000 so nearly raised, the campaign cannot fail.

WILL RUN OFF COUNTY MEET

W. T. Harmon, director of the athletics of Illinois College accompanied by Robert Brown and Thomas Smith students of the college will go to Carrollton this morning to run off the Greene county meet.

The high schools of Carrollton, Greenfield, White Hall and Roodhouse compete in this meet which always creates great interest. Coach Harmon and his assistants were in Carrollton last Wednesday but the meet was postponed on account of rain.

Earl Benz of Nortonville was among the visitors in the city yesterday.

dentifrice called Pepsodent which you are urged to test.

Multiplies two forces

Pepsodent brings two other effects which authorities now desire.

The saliva contains two great tooth-protecting forces. One is a starch digestant, to digest starch deposits on teeth. The other is alkali, to neutralize mouth acids, which attack the teeth.

These forces usually need frequent stimulation. Certain foods will stimulate them, but most people fail to eat these regularly.

Pepsodent, with every use, multiplies those tooth-protecting forces in the mouth. It largely increases the starch digestant and the alkalis. Thus night and morning it gives these natural forces a multiplied effect.

That alone marks tremendous progress toward better tooth protection.

Watch the changes

Present the coupon for a 10-Day Tube, then watch the delightful results. You will see at once that Pepsodent does what has not before been done.

Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear. The mouth, left in alkaline condition, also feels refreshing. You will want these effects continued when you know how much they mean. Go get the free tube and see. Cut out the coupon now.

Add This Beauty

Pearly teeth—combat the film tonight

There is a way to prettier teeth, and millions of people have found it.

It consists in removing the dingy film. You see the results everywhere—on teeth you envy, maybe. And those glistening teeth are often one's premier attraction.

This offers you a ten-day test, to show how whiter, cleaner, safer teeth may also come to you and yours.

Film clouds the teeth

Your teeth are coated with a viscous film. You can feel it with your tongue. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. It forms the basis of dingy coats. The tooth brush used in old ways does not end it, so nearly everyone has suffered from that film.

It is the film-coats that discolor, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acids. It holds the acids in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Thus most tooth troubles are now traced to film.

Now you may combat it

Dental science has long been seeking a daily film combatant. Now two effective methods have been found. Able authorities have proved them by many careful tests. Leading dentists, nearly all the world over, now advise their daily use.

A new-day tooth paste has been perfected, to comply with five modern requirements. These two film-combating methods are embodied in it. This is the

MERRITT ELEVATOR TO QUIT BUSINESS

The Merritt Farmers Elevator Co., which owns elevators at Riggston and Merritt, has placed its business in the hands of a receiver, and the properties are to be sold at an early date. It is understood that the company is going out of business because of inability to rally from the financial depression which followed the war period.

There are fifty-four stockholders in the company, and there is a probability that the directors may bid in the property and continue the business in their own names.

It is understood that the company's present financial situation is due to the fact that they were unable to move promptly much of the high priced grain which was held at the close of the war. Prices slumped and losses resulted.

ST. LOUIS MAN IS NEW RESIDENT HERE

O. C. Moore Becomes Manager of Loop Cafe and Cafeteria—Well Qualified for Position.

O. C. Moore has recently come to Jacksonville from St. Louis to take the position of manager of the Loop Cafe and Cafeteria, owned by Robert Birnbaum. The new manager is by no means new to the restaurant business, as he has had a number of years of experience, much of the time having been with the John R. Thompson Co.

Mr. Moore has been associated with various departments of the business and is thoroughly competent for the work he has undertaken here in Jacksonville. He has found the local establishments well equipped and doing an excellent business, but nevertheless it will be his purpose to increase the efficiency and attractiveness of the service rendered, knowing that the public is certain to evidence its appreciation of these things.

Mr. Birnbaum, who has been resident in Jacksonville now only a little more than a year, has taken place as one of the progressive business men of Jacksonville.

NEW HEALTH OFFICER BEGAN WORK MONDAY

Dr. R. V. Brokaw Comes to Local Task After Varied Experiences In United States and Abroad.

Morgan county's newly appointed health officer, Dr. R. V. Brokaw is on the job. He entered upon his work yesterday, and while unwilling at this time to outline his policies or indicate just what he hopes to accomplish, after meeting the new official one has the feeling that he thoroughly understands the work in which he is engaged.

Dr. Brokaw has for three years past been a full time school physician at Jackson, Mich., but that period by no means represents the total of his training in public health work. He was for a year in South America, then for as long a period in the Balkan states before engaging in the public health service here in the U. S.

The new officer is a native of New York City and spent the earlier years of his life there. He prepared for college at Central College Institute at Hackettstown, N. Y., and then attended college at Middletown, Conn. His medical study was at Columbia University where he graduated in 1915.

Almost immediately afterward he was appointed to a position under the American sanitary commission to the Serbian government and his work there was particularly along the line of battling contagious diseases. After four months in Serbia, the war came on and he was with others taken prisoner and removed to the Lady Paget hospital at Uskub. This is a hospital of 750 beds and the wounded were brought there by the hundreds.

Saw Service Abroad.

After six months' service at the hospital Dr. Brokaw was interned into Roumania and with his associates proceeded northward thru Russia, Finland, Lapland, Sweden and Norway and after a month in London returned to the U. S. For the year 1917 he was staff doctor for the Braden Copper Co., in South America and then returning to the states did special work in Texas and a number of the southern states for the International health board of the Rockefeller Foundation.

The work in the south was with special reference to pollution diseases, like hook worm and typhoid fever. Then came the work at Jackson, in which he has been engaged for more than three years past. Jackson is a city of 48,000 and the medical department of the schools is thoroughly organized.

Dr. Brokaw's work there included medical inspection of children, the correction of defects and those things that are generally known to have a part in public health work as related to school children.

So with an abundant experience and with quite an accurate knowledge of the work for which should be done by a well organized public health department, Dr. Brokaw is hoping to carry on a service here that will be beneficial to the public and meet the expectations of the local and state health department authorities.

Mr. Brokaw is expected in the city early in June.

STRONG DEMAND FOR STREET OILING

Many Citizens Met With City Council Monday Night—Costs Will Be Divided Equally—More Sidewalk Ordinances Introduced.

The city council Monday night promised citizens that the city will pay one half of the oiling cost on streets where residents are willing to pay the other half. The condition was made that the money be deposited in advance with the city clerk and that the price for the work must be fixed by Supt. of Streets White and W. H. Cocking, oil contractor.

At least seventy-five citizens were present when Mayor Crabtree called the council to order. City Clerk Scott and Aldermen Sorrells, Rowe, Harmon, Chapin, Ehnie, Longan, Flynn and McGinnis were found to be present.

Most of the time of the council session was taken in considering the street oiling program. However, before adjournment Dr. Brokaw, all time health officer, was introduced by Mayor Crabtree and spoke briefly. Dr. Brokaw said he realized the eyes of the state would be upon Morgan county as being the first to try out the all time health officer plan, and expressed his confidence that the results would be satisfactory.

After reading the minutes and other routine business, on recommendation of the fire committee Carl Litter was appointed a driver and hoseman in the department.

Complaint with reference to a lack of light on City Place was reported and a statement made that the improvement desired will be made as soon as a shipment of coal is received.

Alderman Ehnie from the health department reported that many of the wells tested at the city's plant gave unsatisfactory analysis.

Ordinances were introduced for sidewalks on a number of streets, and will be given a second reading next week. Alderman Sorrells has been actively at work with engineer Henderson hunting up streets where sidewalks have been ordered and not laid.

More Sidewalks Planned.
The ordinances introduced last night are for portions of streets indicated below:

East Railroad street, north side from Howe street to Johnson.

West Railroad street, south side from North Diamond street to Bedwell.

East Court street, north side from Bates street to Brown.

East Chambers street, north side from Clay avenue to Hardin avenue.

South Mauvaister street, both sides from College avenue to the brook.

Hardin avenue, east side from Morton avenue to Superior avenue.

South Clay avenue, both sides from College street, south.

Cox street, west from Independence avenue to Hockenull street.

Myrtle street, west side from Lafayette avenue to Sheridan street.

Mayor Crabtree explained the oiling situation and the regret on the part of the city that the money is not available for oiling. He said that the council had decided that it would be possible for the city to bear half the expense of oiling on the streets where the property owners are ready to pay the other half. An extended discussion followed in which numerous residents took part.

On motion of Alderman Longan it was made a matter of record that the city will pay half of the oiling cost on streets where the property owners pay half, the money to be taken in advance to the city clerk as the estimate as to the cost to be made by the superintendent of streets and the contractor, Joseph Gomes stated that every Fayet street resident wanted oil and was ready to pay for it.

Street Oiling Figures.
Mr. Cocking explained that he did not wish to do the work on any street where the fund was not sufficient to pay for all the oil needed. Any other course, he said, would mean unsatisfactory work and criticism. The estimates made by Mr. Cocking for some streets are given herewith. It was made clear that these estimates are not final, and are subject to revision: Spaulding Place, $70; East College avenue, $500; Court street, $220; Hardin avenue, $400; Clay avenue, Superior to Michigan, $180; Park Place, $80; Superior avenue, Main street to Pumping station, $500; Morton avenue, $400; West Chambers, Diamond street to Gladstone, $100; Edge Hill road, Diamond street to Gladstone, $100; Reid street, $75; Independence avenue, Myrtle street to Diamond, $80; Walnut street, North Main street to Sandusky, $400; Case avenue, $72; North East street, North street to Independence avenue, $220.

Estimates were made for only a part of the streets and in order to give a general idea of the cost of the work. Just before adjournment complaint was made by Supt. White with reference to an alley way adjoining the Hutson Bros. establishment. It is claimed that the alley way is blocked with used tractors and cars.

T. Kerkfiedler of Roodhouse was among the city's visitors yesterday.

Miss Catharine Collins was over to the city from Virginia yesterday.

Illinois College Trustees Appoint J. Bart Johnson Band Instructor—Also Becomes Member of Conservatory Faculty.

Announcement was made at the Illinois College chapel exercises Monday morning that J. Bart Johnson had been appointed Director of the College Band for next year and instructor in band instruments on the Conservatory faculty. The arrangements for the band this year were more or less temporary but this action by the college trustees places the band on a more permanent foundation and makes definite provision for instruction on band instruments. The college authorities are pleased to have secured the services of one so well qualified as Mr. Johnson to take permanent charge of the band. The faculty at a recent meeting passed a resolution allowing college credit to students for playing in the band. Considering the short time that the band has been in existence, it has made great progress. Mr. Johnson hopes to make it one of the best college bands in the state.

MRS. WILDAY'S WILL PLACED ON RECORD

Former Resident of Mercedosa Left Valuable Estate

The will of Emily J. Wilday was filed for probate Monday in the office of County Clerk Rigg. The deceased, who was for a long period a resident of Mercedosa precinct, left a valuable estate, consisting largely of farm land.

After providing for the payment of debts Mrs. Wilday left 160 acres of land, located in section 23 to her husband, William Wilday, as trustee. It is stipulated that one-half of the returns from this land are to belong to Mr. Wilday and the other half paid to Frances A. Gray, sister of the testatrix. At the death of either the survivor and after the death of both the property is to be divided equally between C. J. Beagle, C. L. Beagle and Elia Gray, niece and nephews of the testatrix.

Further provision is made that an 14 acre tract on Mercedosa Island and another tract known as the "school house 40", both located in section 39, may be sold by the executor if he so desires, and the funds resulting are to be his for life.

The husband is also given a life interest in the home place and in all other real estate not previously mentioned. Subsequent to Mr. Wilday's death and the death of the sister, Mrs. Gray, then all of the residue of the estate is to be divided into equal shares among the nephews and niece mentioned above. The signature to the will was witnessed by C. W. and Helen Augustine and C. A. Barnes.

WRITE for The BOOK of the PLAY describing Yellowstone NATIONAL PARK

And it is a play—the greatest on earth with Nature's own actors, 100 dancing geysers, countless springs boiling in gorgeous colored basins, seething "paint-pots" of liquid pigments, spluttering mud volcanoes.

The play goes on ceaselessly with a stage setting of flower-carpeted valleys, majestic mountains, roaring waterfalls and marvelous canyons of indescribably beautiful colorings. While the bears, buffalo, deer and elk roaming at large, give the completing touch to the grand ensemble.

The beautiful book describing Yellowstone, and containing maps and information regarding camps and hotels, is free. Write for your copy.

for A. T. Simmons, the Bloomington architect who is planning the First Baptist church, was here this week with final plans, and these will again be gone over by Architect Simmons when he comes to White Hall next week. When this is done bids will be received for the construction work. The church has elected as deacons R. F. Ballard, Dr. W. T. Knox, and E. C. Camm and William F. Short has been elected a trustee. Architect Simmons is also drawing up plans for the library building for comparison with the Pillsbury plans, and Mr. Simmons' visit will have double significance. It is likely that the Pillsbury library plans will be adopted with slight modifications, and he is expected daily with final plans for the new high school. The matter of larger hotel facilities is becoming so urgent that something along that line is expected to receive action at an early date.

Dean E. Raines has been restored to total full disability, according to word from Congressmen Guy L. Shaw, who has been working on the case since Raines' allowance was reduced to a partial disability basis. Congress Shaw is doing very effective work in behalf of soldiers in his district.

W. M. Corbett, president of the Kansas City terminal, was the guest of Louis Lowenstein this week while looking after farming interests.

The "Roll of Honor." Word from Capt. E. R. Lewis of Chicago, state superintendent of records of burial places of soldiers and sailors, is that he anticipates going to press about the 22nd of this month with his volume that is to compose a "Roll of Honor" of the soldier dead in Illinois of all wars. Illinois is the first state to engage in an undertaking of this kind and the accomplishments of Capt. Lewis is compiling the information will without a doubt prove to be all that has been claimed for his energy and ability along this line.

School Entertainments. Final rehearsals indicate a most successful rendition of "A Picnic Day in the Woods" by the first three grades of the public school next Monday evening under the supervision of Miss Rua Perry. The entertainment has been arranged for the benefit of the school piano fund, and will be held in basket ball hall, commencing at 7:30. There will be folk dances by the fourth and fifth grades, a musical program by the junior high, and a health toast by the nutritional class supervisor, Miss Ethel Pettrio, who will likely make suitable reference to the observance of health week that is now being brought to a close.

The approaching close of the school term brings its regrets, one of which is the decision of Miss Perry to no longer serve in the local schools, it being her intention to attend school next year. She has taught here for nine years.

The schools will close May 31st with commencement exercises of the high school. The personnel of the class has not yet been given out by the superintendent.

Mr. and Mrs. William Miller have arrived in the city from Oregon where they have been for several years. The Journal's informant thought Mr. Miller meant to remain in this vicinity but was not quite positive. The gentleman has many friends who would be glad to have him stay here.

BOY WONDERS WILL BEGIN BATTLE TONIGHT

Schaeffer and Cochran Will Play for 18-2 Title—Will Be for Blood.

Chicago, May 15.—A battle of "boy wonders" who once were the closest of friends but now are scarcely on speaking terms, will begin tomorrow night when Young Jake Schaeffer and Welke Cochran meet in the first 500 point block of their three night 1,500 point match for the world's 18-2 billiard championship.

The contest will be played in Orchestra Hall where Schaeffer, the title holder recently defeated Willie Hoppe in a 1,500 point match after winning the title from the once greatest of cue experts in the national tournament last fall.

While the match probably will not rank in national interest with the Hoppe-Schaeffer contest which went down in billiard history as a classic, there is little doubt that the men will play before capacity audiences and that each will give his best.

The peculiar chain of circumstances which brought Schaeffer and Cochran together as youngsters and then separated them as enemies lends assurances that the staid old phrase "hard fought" would not be misused were it applied in predictions concerning the three night's play.

Cochran and Schaeffer at 26 are the youngest nationally known stars in the game. Each has played since a youngster, Schaeffer learning from his father the late Jake Schaeffer, who once was the best in the world. The two became great drawing cards in exhibition matches because of their combination of youth and ability. They toured the country together and then formed a partnership thru which, it was said, each was to receive fifty per cent of the profits from matches in which either participated. Everything went nicely, until Cochran claimed he had not received the proper percentage of one match. A lawsuit resulted.

The disagreement was aggravated a short time ago when arrangements for the coming match were announced. Herbert Lewis, who had refereed the Schaeffer-Hoppe match was named as referee. There was considerable surprise when Schaeffer insisted that another person be chosen. The champion explained that he had the highest regard for Mr. Lewis' ability and knew that he was absolutely fair.

"Nevertheless Lewis has been extremely intimate with Cochran lately, playing golf with him and visiting him," Schaeffer said.

"I know that Lewis would never intentionally be unfair, but his close friendship for Cochran makes it better all around for some one else to referee."

So Albert Cutler, the eastern professional was selected and the break between Schaeffer and Cochran became a little wider. Both men are said to be in perfect shape for the three night's work.

BOSTON, May 15.—Boston made it three straight from Chicago today when Warren Collins held the visitors to five hits, the Red Sox winning 2 to 0. A single by Burns with one out in the sixth followed by a pass to Pratt and a wild pitch which advanced both men and a single to center by John Collins, scored both runs.

INDEES DEFEAT MYERS BROTHERS

Take Visitors into Camp by Score of 8 to 5—Seymour Pitched Good Ball.

The Indees defeated Myers Brothers team of Springfield at South Side park yesterday by a score of 8 to 5. It was the opening game of the season and was witnessed by a good sized crowd. The visitors had played and won three games and naturally local fans were fearful of the result. However, the locals, tho not having had much practice and playing their first game since last fall took the lead from the jump and were never headed.

Seymour for the Indees hurled a good game and held the visitors safe all the way. The Indees took advantage of their opportunities and hit the visiting pitcher hard. Had it not been for errors it is probable Seymour would have shut out Myers Brothers. The fast Roberts Brothers team comes for a game next Sunday and the Indees with some practice the coming week expect to put this game on the right side of the ledger. The score:

NEHF HOLDS CUBS TO FIVE SCATTERED HITS

Giants Hit Aldridge Freely But Five Double Plays Held Them to One Run—Statz Chased From Gate by Umpire.

CADDIES TO HAVE NATIONAL TOURNEY

Chicago, May 15.—Caddies of American golf links are to have a national championship tournament annually under a plan announced tonight by Albert R. Gates, president of Western Golf association who is to sponsor the affairs. The chief prize is to be a scholarship in some university or other school and the expenses of the youths who enter the meet will be paid for them.

In honor of Chief Evans who rose from caddie to national amateur and open champion, the first tournament will be held some time this summer at his home club, Edgewater Golf club, Chicago.

NOTRE DAME DEFEATED NORTHWESTERN, 5 TO 4

FIND IT IN BOOKS

The "American Magazine" for May contains many articles which are extremely interesting this month. In fiction, Clarence B. Kelland is starting a new serial entitled "Mischief." Mr. Kelland is the author of the "Scattergood stories" and anyone who has read those will be interested to read this new serial. Read "Mischief" as it appears monthly and do not wait for the book.

Ellis Parker Butler has a short story entitled "Ghosts What Aint." Many readers have laughed over his former story, "Pigs Is Pigs," and this will no doubt be as popular and as humorous.

The American Magazine also gives the reading public a chance to know how a great many business men have made a success of their lives so be sure to read boy Murdo McKenzie, a Scotchman, conquered the west by refusing to carry a gun.

Dr. Frank Crane has been a writer of the American Magazine for a number of years. Do not neglect to read "Personal and Indecent," the story of his life and ambitions and experiences up to the time when he calls himself the "happiest man I know."

Isaac F. Marcossion tells the story of "How big men hit the mail on the head," and from his experience we may well judge that he practices what he preaches and used his motto "Nothing is impossible."

Almost every town has a 5 and 10 cent store and many folks consider these days hard times, therefore do not fail to read S. S. Kresge's story of progress achieved during a panic and his experiences with his chain of stores, all over the United States.

For those people away from home the article, "Who Buys Your Home Town Paper on the Streets of New York," will be very timely. Read it right when he says that "Some New Yorkers are successful business men, but their hearts are in their home town."

There probably isn't a person among us who isn't interested in the movies, especially since our papers are full of scandal concerning the stars. A pleasant and profitable hour might be spent reading what George Ade has to say about Hollywood and the people there. Mr. Ade spent two months there finding out about the nature of the city and the character of the inhabitants and their pleasures and their work and their extravagances.

All local loyal citizens are interested in towns where they pull together on all propositions. In Winnetka, Illinois, they found out that the way to get along is to get together on all matters of public interest and plan things for the betterment of all in the town. Members of the local Chamber of Commerce will especially enjoy the experience of the citizens of Winnetka, Illinois.

Read the American Magazine at the PUBLIC LIBRARY. Service is yours for the asking.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT

While Harry Furry was participating in the races Saturday, a competitor behind him gave rush forward with his spiked shoe stepped on young Furry's left leg making a painful wound. The plucky young man ran half a mile afterward but was so badly hurt he had to go to a doctor for attention and he is now nursing a very sore extremity but it is hoped that nothing serious will result.

STOCK EXCHANGE HAS IRREGULAR SESSION

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, May 15.—Movements in the stock market today were uncertain losses predominating at the close. Divergent view of professional operators and subsistence of public emphasized the list's hesitancy or heavy tone.

Market advices over the weekend were in keeping with the course of prices. The favorable clearing house statement was neutralized by an extension of labor troubles and adverse reports from the Geneva conference. The general rise in steels which followed the news of the Bethlehem-Lackawanna deal seemed to have lost much of its force as a bullish factor altho dealings in shares of that description again were extensive. Excepting Lackawanna, which rose to a new maximum but finished at a fractional loss declines in the steels ran from 1 to 4 points.

Motors and equipments offered little resistance to the more extensive offerings of the final hour and the few noteworthy gains among rails were fortified. Sales amounted to 1,135,000 shares.

The $34,000,000 in annual reserves shown by local banks probably contributed to the ease of call loans were held at 3 1/2 per cent thruout.

Foreign exchanges were firm to strong. The Swiss rate was the one noteworthy exception reacting 12 points to a level considerably below par after having led the neutral remittances for many months.

Further reduction of trading in Liberty bonds featured those in-

HAS FINE GARDEN

Though Comrade L. A. Barr might be called on the retired list he doesn't believe in wholly rusting out. He lives with his daughter, Mrs. Decker and family on West Lafayette avenue and there he has a garden of which he is justly proud. The patch is not very large but it is cultivated to its full capacity and that family bids fair to have lettuce, cabbage, onions, peas, beans, corn, tomatoes and other garden sassa in abundance. Mr. Barr takes a pardonable pride in his effort at tilling the soil and the place is much admired by all who see it.
